

BEHIND THE SCAVENGER HUNT

One day in early 2021, a resolute M. Phogg, Esq. is seen walking through the streets of Napoli. With a heavy heart he prepares himself to meet with Ms Nautica to discuss the details surrounding the untimely death of her Great Great Aunt Marina Nautica, late of Hampton Roads, Virginia.

Although expecting M. Phogg's visit, Ms Nautica could have never prepared herself and Gilligan for what was on the horizon for them! Great Great Aunt Nautica had instructed M. Phogg to transfer the entire family fortune to Ms Nautica and Gilligan, Too!

Years ago, while Aunt Marina and the Nautica Salvage Company's Quest for Good dropped anchor in the port of Napoli while on adventure, she had the good fortune to spend holiday time with her grand nephew's young family, including the charming, wee Ms Nautica!

While sharing a meal, Marina was struck by the girl's kind and inquisitive nature. She knew at that very moment Ms.Nautica would be the perfect choice to carry on the family business. The estate includes the family riverhouse in Virginia, the Nautica Salvage Company, and her eclectic collection of found treasures.

But those treasures were not quite what one might expect! Aunt Marina, being a bit eccentric, desired more than anything to share her collection with all of Hampton Roads and scattered most of the items around the area, mostly in plain sight. Her most precious finds were placed in the care of her favorite local business owners who display them in their establishments for the enjoyment of their customers.

Ms Nautica was so enticed to see the treasures she asked M.Phogg to organize an immediate sailing to Hampton Roads! When M. Phogg told her how many items there were, she asked if there were people who could help her catalog them, maybe like a scavenger hunt! M. Phogg reminded her that he is a Rotarian and his fellow Rotarians may want to help!

Please consider ways you can help Ms Nautica, M. Phogg, Esq, and Gilligan, Too! as they prepare for Quest for Good: The Scavenger Hunt 2022! Be people of action and part of the fun! It's a good thing!
